UNA DESPEDIDA

Cuando llegamos al final de nuestro periodo como parte de la Board of Student Advisers, queremos agradecer a nuestros lectores de boletines y participantes que han contribuido al éxito de SDPideas. Hemos disfrutado mucho aprender y escuchar de usted y sus capítulos.

Un agradecimiento especial a nuestros compañeros miembros de la junta que continuarán compartiendo y aprendiendo con ustedes en este espacio. Gracias a todos por hacer que estos dos años sean memorables y por compartir su amor por el idioma español con nosotros.

Madison S. & Annette Z.

CHAPTER SPOTLIGHT: PI THETA

Arkansas State University's Pi Theta chapter is dedicated to providing opportunities that engage their campus and community in the Spanish language and culture. Recently, the group hosted a "Halloween Movie Fest in Spanish," where almost a hundred students attended their showing of the films Los Ojos de Julia and El Invitado Incierto. Pi Theta also collaborated with the Arkansas State University Museum to aid in their fifth annual Día de los Muertos celebration. The event was a fun night for families and the community to celebrate the holiday through face painting, sugar skulls, music, and Mexican-inspired games.

This semester Pi Theta has been hosting “Spanish at the Pub” gatherings. This is a tertulia-type event at a local pub, where students are able to practice their Spanish through conversing with other students, faculty, and members of the community.

Next semester, the group is planning on hosting a charity event to raise funds for women who have suffered domestic violence. They are also planning on hosting a literary activity on April 23rd, to honor the Día del Libro. The Pi Theta chapter is currently made of fourteen members, and will initiate four more students this month.

Hello! My name is Brendan Looney and I am a senior at Washington College in Chestertown, Maryland. I am an International Studies and Spanish double major with a minor in Latin American Studies, and I am particularly interested in sustainability and international human rights. Outside of school, I love to travel, cook, and play soccer (though not very well). I am very excited to begin my term on the Board of Student Advisers and am so grateful for this opportunity.

My name is Hannah Collins and I'm so excited to be a new member of the Sigma Delta Pi Board of Student Advisers. I was the Vice President of the organization at Northeastern University, where I study International Affairs and Spanish. I am currently studying abroad in Barcelona for the semester. When I graduate in May, I hope to secure a volunteer position teaching English in South America.
